

COMPANY

All things are perfect here
The sky is always blue and clear
All the work done by machines
The people live like kings and queens
All is peace no need to discuss
The company takes care of us

I wake up and start another day
I live my life, no need to pay
I travel and I look at art
I do not miss the old it was so hard
I am surrounded by people just like me
I put my trust in the company

I wake up and start the same day
I fear I may have lost my way

I left behind a thing cracked
I could have made a big impact
I was not the only one to leave
I am happy here, I do believe again

I wake up and start the same day
I wake up no longer wanting to stay
I have given up my hopes and dreams
I have tried so hard to fit their schemes
I must go back and do what is right now
I must go to the old world tonight

real

... logging off ...

I wake up and start a new day tear away the plugs and cables that formed my cage thin limbs into ragged clothes

the one life, the only nature, there must be more out into the empty streets, where I belong, I go

I live I taste I see I hear I smell I feel I think I move I experience I explore I I I

They hide the damages hide the mistakes hide the corruption hide the significance hide the consequences

It wasn't like this before!

They promised it would never become like this!

When did They start trading green for green?

Why didn't We stop them?

Didn't We stop them?

Did We do this?

Did I?

They did this

They can't fix it

We did this

We could fix it

I did this

I can fix it

Is it too late?

NO

maybe We aren't like Them

maybe We can create our own company

maybe We can do it one line at a time
